

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A JUNIOR CCC ENROLLEE

Source: Tillman Diamond Collection | West Virginia State Archives

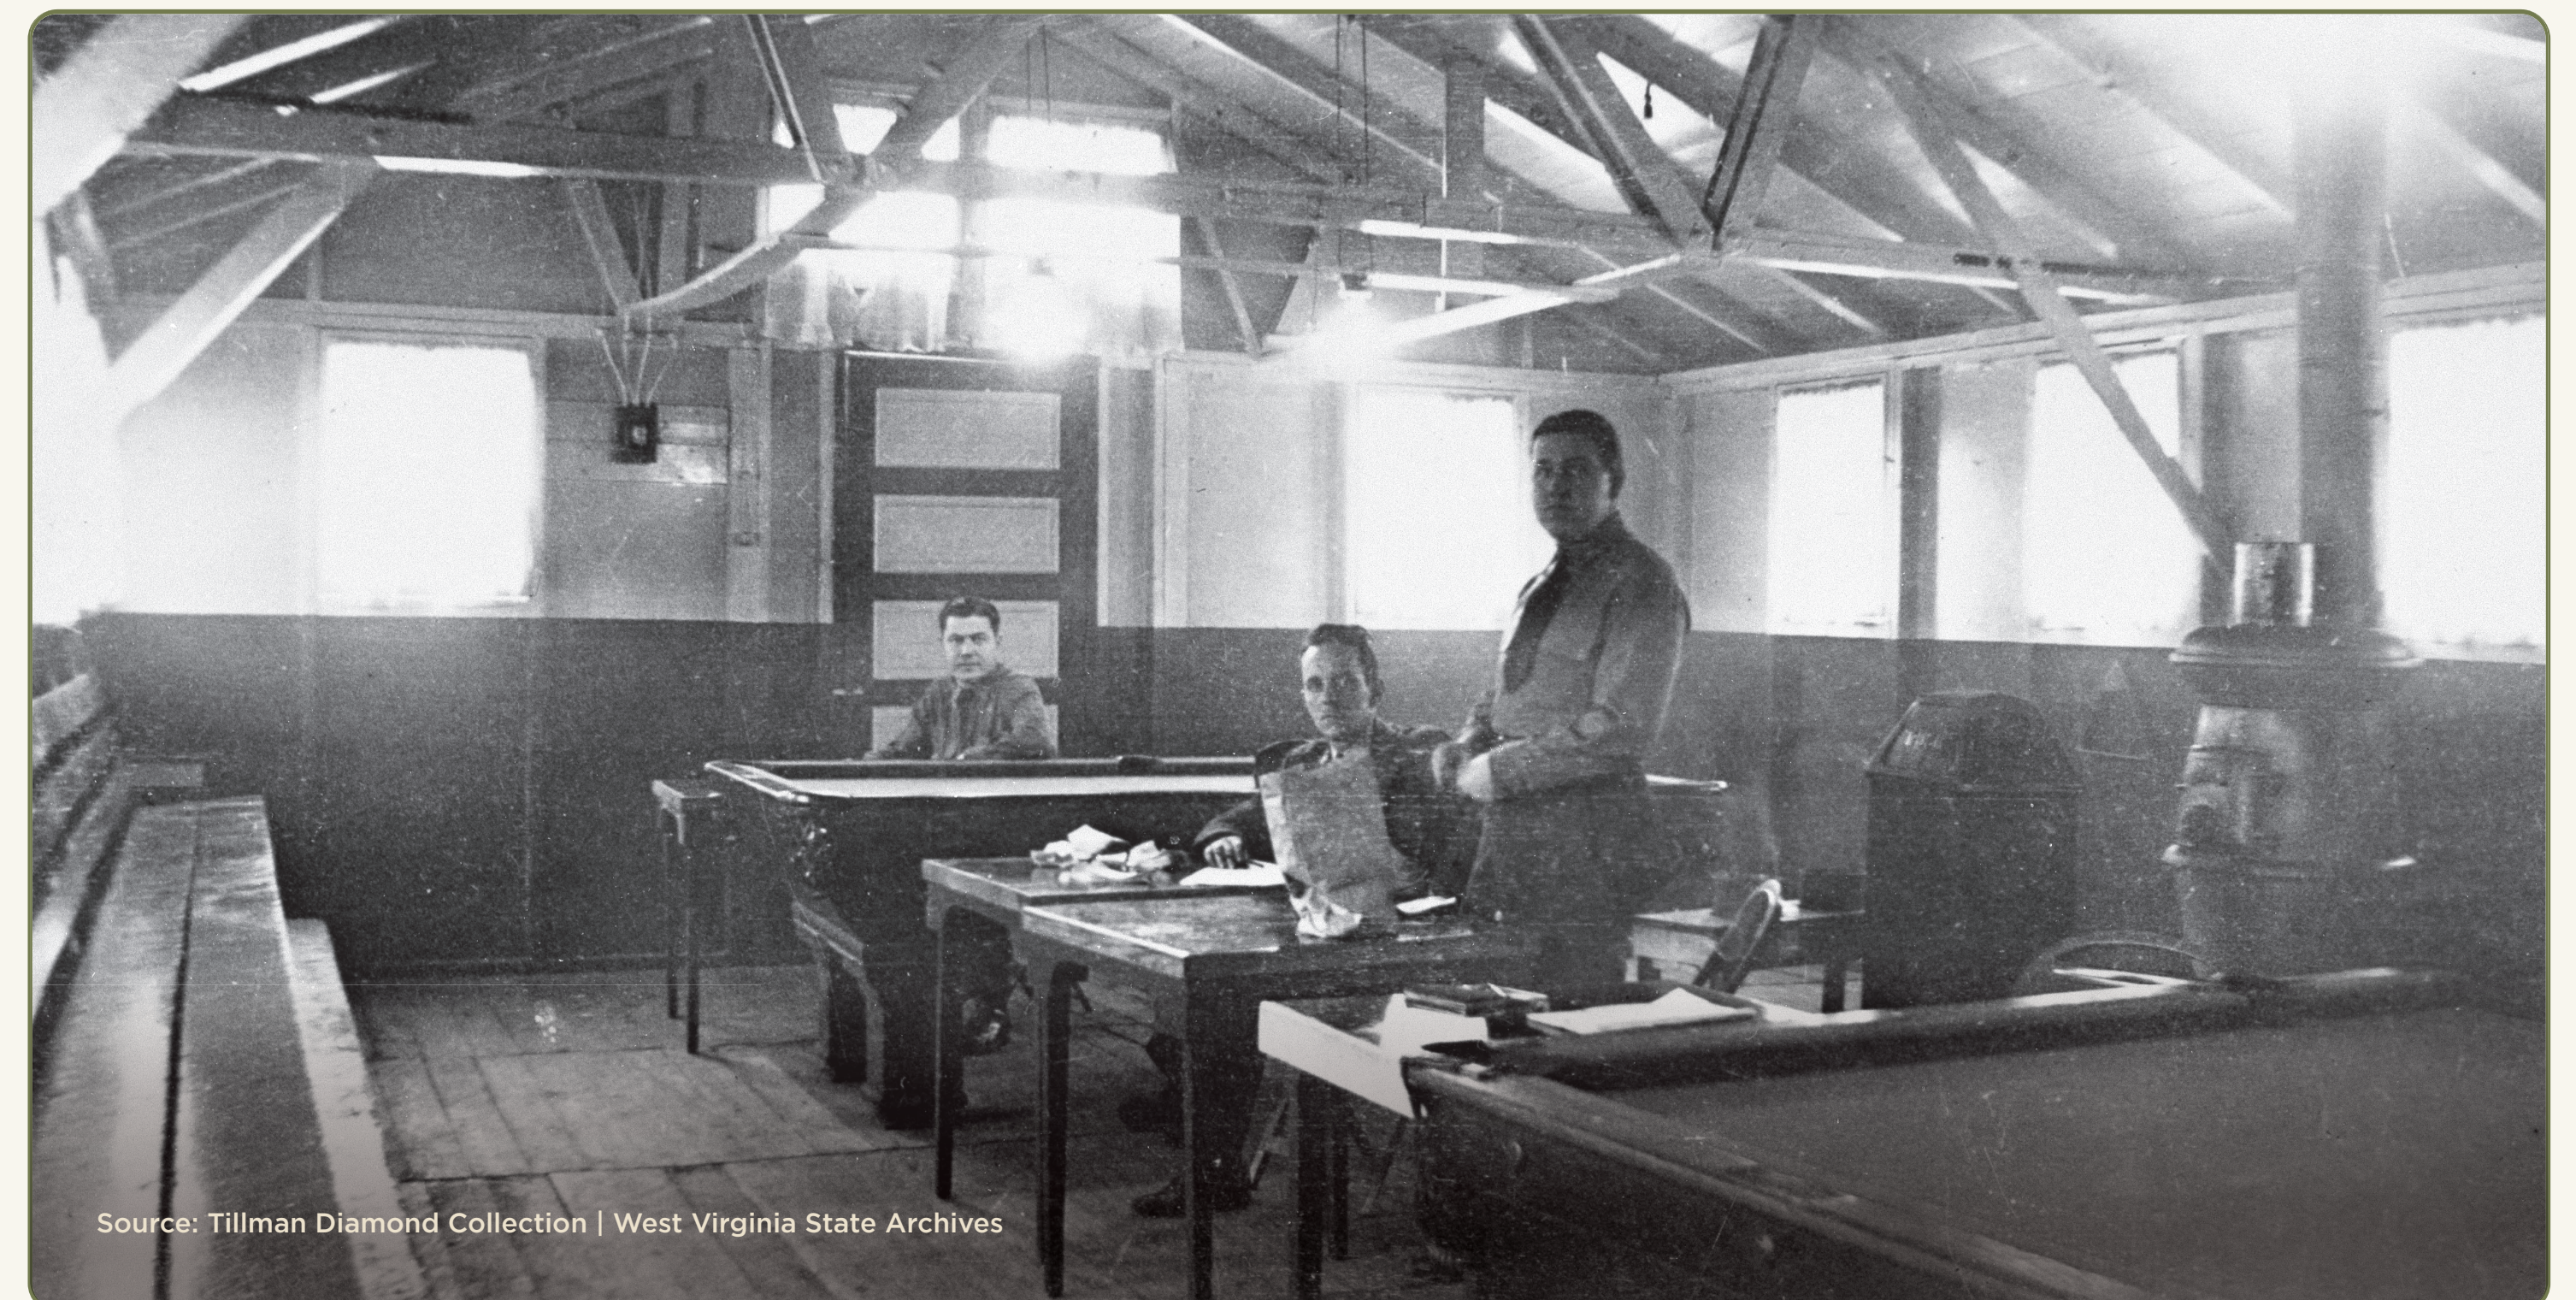

Civilian Conservation Corps Camp Kanawha, S-76 under the command of the Fifth Corps of the United States Army. CCC Company 2599 began work on the Kanawha State Forest Project on April 10th, 1938.

Barracks, CCC Camp 2599, S-76, Kanawha State Forest

Source: Tillman Diamond Collection | West Virginia State Archives

Enrollees waiting for paychecks, CCC Camp 2599, S-76, Kanawha State Forest

Source: Tillman Diamond Collection | West Virginia State Archives

Daily Life in the CCC Camp

Camp Kanawha included barracks, a mess hall, a kitchen, latrines, and an infirmary. A typical day began at 6:00 am with reveille. After a hearty breakfast and barracks and grounds cleanup, enrollees left for their work assignments at 7:15 a.m. Lunch was often served in the field and the men were back in camp by 4:00 p.m. After cleaning up and lowering the flag at 5:00 p.m., enrollees would assemble for their dinner. From the end of dinner until the call for their 10:00 p.m. bedtime, enrollees were free to read, play games, or play sports.

Harold, Z. (June 2019). Hermolin, J. (February 2016).

Source: Tillman Diamond Collection | West Virginia State Archives

KANAWHA
STATE FOREST